

Money Move$ by Faith: Shifting from Scarcity to Source

Hebrews 11:6

The “NEVER ENOUGH” American Consumer

- ▶ Americans increased their spending by 3.7% in 2025
- ▶ Americans increased their spending by 5.7% in 2024
- ▶ Americans spent $21t in 2025
- ▶ Americans spent $14.23t in 2020
- ▶ Which means Americans have increased their spending by a whopping 50% in 6 years

1. SCARCITY MENTALITY: The major problem with possessing a scarcity mentality is that it keeps us trapped in a never-ending cycle of anxiety, whereby, we constantly worry about what we will eat, drink and wear, rather than trusting the One who created us (Matthew 6:31-32).

2 Ways Fear and Anxiety Kill Us

- Fear and Anxiety Limit the Effectiveness of Our Prayers (Philippians 4:6).
 - Fear and Anxiety Paralyze our Generosity (Proverbs 11:24, Matthew 6:33).
2. SOURCE-ORIENTED MINDSET: Never forget that God is The Source. Everything else—careers, connections, gigs, side hustles—is merely a resource. Resources change, but The Source remains (Philippians 4:19).

(over please)

1 Thing to Do, 1 Thing to Know

- √ Prioritize The Source Over the Channel (Deuteronomy 8:18)
- √ God's Math Multiplies What We Faithfully Manage (2 Corinthians 9:10)

3. MOVE FROM WORRY TO WORSHIP: Jesus calls us to a radical reshaping of our priorities. Instead of worrying about not having enough, we must choose to worship the One who has given us everything (Matthew 6:33).

Making the Shift from Worry → Worship

- √ Move God Into the #1 Position of Every Aspect of Life (Proverbs 3:9-10)
- √ Move the Act of Prayer from Panic Mode to Trusting the Promise Keeper (Mark 11:24).

Keys for the Week

1. Ask yourself each morning: In what area of my life can I honor God first today—my relationships, finances or decisions?
2. Set aside intentional time for prayer, focusing not on your worries, but on trusting God to fulfill His promises.
3. Throughout the week, thank God for blessings you already have and reflect on how shifting from worry to worship changes your perspective.
