

Guest Preacher, Dr. Kevin B. Taylor

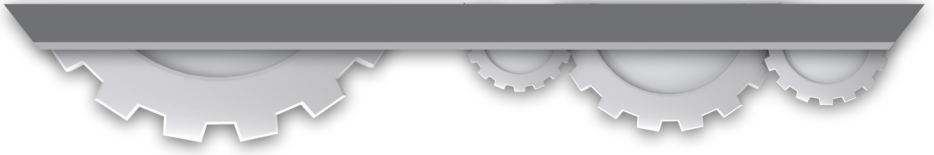

Dr. Kevin B. Taylor is Senior Pastor of Antioch Baptist Church, Fairfax Station, VA, with over 27 years of faithful service to God and His church. He is a nationally renowned preacher, teacher and exemplary leader, passionate about equipping God's people spiritually and emotionally.

A native of Quincy, FL, he is the proud and privileged son of Bernard (deceased) and Mary Taylor. He is a dedicated family man. God blessed him with a wonderful and lovely wife, Leona. They are the proud parents of Joshua, Exavier, Kyenila, Jaylin and Jhordyn. They have one grandchild, Janiyah.

With a firm belief that education is the great equalizer, Dr. Taylor earned degrees from some of our nation's most prestigious and historic educational institutions. With academic honors, he received a Bachelor of Science in Biochemistry from Florida State University; a Master of Divinity from Samuel DeWitt Proctor School of Theology-Virginia Union University; and a Doctor of Ministry (Sermon Based Discipleship) from United Theological Seminary. He is currently pursuing a Ph.D. in Business Leadership with a Human Resource concentration at Anderson University College of Business. He has also received many academic awards such as Dean's List, Harry Hoiser Scholar and Virginia Nelson scholar. Dr. Taylor is a certified Dean through the Division of Christian Education under the National Baptist Convention. He has served as an instructor and held many leadership positions at the district and state levels. He is also the author of Help Killers and 31 Days of Life Changing Prayer.

As a dedicated servant leader, he has given significant time to community outreach and missions in Haiti, Belize and Kenya through World Vision. He is a proud member of Kappa Alpha Psi and Society of Human Resource Management. When Dr. Taylor is not immersed in ministry or academics, he enjoys reading, cycling, golfing, traveling and enjoying local restaurants.
